CHRISTIAN

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE

OF THE

Mennonite Community.

WADSWORTH,

MEDINA COUNTY, OHIO.

Home Friend Print, Quakertown, Pa.

The English and German Departments of the Mennonite Educational Institute having been separated into two distinct schools, the undersigned respectfully invites the attention of ladies and gentlemen to the following concerning the English Department.

The school year is divided into four sessions—Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer. The Fall Session of this year will commence August 15, and continue eleven weeks.

The course of study will include all the common school branches, besides Rhetoric, Elementary and Higher Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Physical Geography, Philosophy, Physiology, Botany and Vocal Music. For such as are preparing to teach there will be during the Fall and Summer terms a special class in methods of Teaching and School Economy.

Male students from abroad will find a friendly welcome to stay with Prof. van der Smissen at the Institute, where boarding, washing, light and fuel will be given for $2.75 per week.

In course of time there will possibly be some arrangements made by which ladies from a distance can find a home with the English teacher.

Boarding at private houses in the vicinity ranges from $3.50 to $4.00 per week.

Tuition for full term, six dollars. No extra charges for any of the above named branches Students can also receive instruction in German, Instrumental Music, Drawing and Painting, Fancy Needlework, etc., etc., for which extra charges will be made.

The Amateur Literary Society, connected with this school, will furnish ample opportunities to students to receive literary culture not to be obtained in the class-room.

The Institute building, in itself pleasant and commodious, is very pleasantly located, about a quarter of a mile west of the town of Wadsworth, and about one mile from the station of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, and is easy of access from all parts of the country.

A. S. SHELLY.

SPINNERSVILLE, BUCKS CO., PA.

July, 1877.

In course of time there will possibly be some arrangements made by which ladies from a distance can find a home with the English teacher.

Boarding at private houses in the vicinity ranges from $3.50 to $4.00 per week.

Tuition for full term, six dollars. No extra charges for any of the above named branches. Students can also receive instruction in German, Instrumental Music, Drawing and Painting, Fancy Needle-work, etc., etc., for which extra charges will be made.

The Augusta Literary Society, connected with this school, will furnish ample opportunities to students to receive literary culture not to be obtained in the class-room.

The Institute building, in itself pleasant and commodious, is very pleasantly located, about a quarter of a mile east of the town of Waynesboro, and about one mile from the station of the Atlantic and West Western Railroad, and is easy of access from all parts of the country.

M. S. SHELLY.

SHIPPENSVILLE, Franklin Co., Pa.

July, 1877.